

Hanna-Leena Pesonen works as an expert of sustainable development in the regional council of Lapland. She promotes green transition and development of bioeconomy, and stands for forest topics in the Regional Council.