

Raimo Lilja is an environmental consultant currently working for the Development Company Miksei Ltd owned by the city of Mikkeli, Finland. He has 40+ years of experience in waste management and circular economy. His dissertation (2016) was Promoting waste prevention in industry – search for policy instruments.

Mr. Lilja has managed waste related projects in Karelia, the Baltic countries, Albania, and many developing countries, especially Egypt, Nepal, Laos and Vietnam. In Finland he has provided consultant services mainly to the Ministry of Environment and other institutions.